A Note From Jalen's Family

Hi Shelley, Naomie, Stephanie and Stan,

I want to thank you from the bottom of our hearts we could have NEVER put this together without you guys. What you do for these kids and all the family's is beyond words. The time you all put in, with interviews and putting everything together for us, touches my heart, not only do you think of the child that is sick you also include the siblings. His two brothers have been through so much watching Jalen fight this disease they thought at one point there healthy 175-pound big brother wasn't going to make it he lost over half his body weight he was under 90 pounds not able to function on his own, his brothers didn't know how to deal with it. When Jalen and his brother found out they were all getting a room makeover they couldn't believe it they were all so excited and had something to look forward to especially with these crazy times right now.

Your organization puts the smile and hope back when times are tough, and the look when they saw their rooms were priceless and it is something we will always be thankful for and never forget. Thank you again for all you have done it means the world to us!!

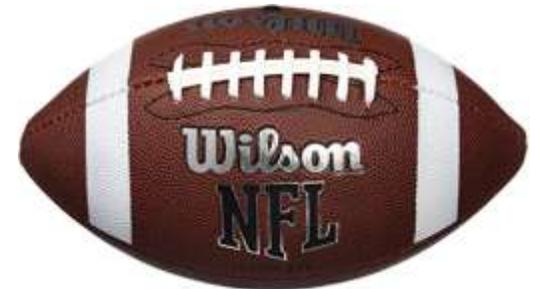

Lots of love,
Juan, Stacey, Jalen, Devin and Jordan
