A Note From Elliana's Mother...

Wow where do I begin! I am speechless with the outcome of the rooms; they are absolutely AMAZING! I feel like that is even an understatement.

Let me tell you after a long week with an unexpected hospital stay for Elliana we finally got a smile out of her when she saw the video of her room! Emotionally she has been pretty down this admission, but seeing her room definitely sparked excitement within her. She has gotten out of bed and her spirits have heightened which is so good to see. She is motivated to get this surgery done and get back home to her beautiful room! Anne is phenomenal at what she does. I was blown away at the incredible transformation of all 3 rooms and to top it off it was done in 2 days!

Thank you so much to the crew, the companies/sponsors and everyone that was involved in this process. The rooms bring so much happiness and joy to all of us especially after this long journey. This feels like a fresh start and we are incredibly grateful! I will send you pictures of Elliana in her room once she is discharged!
